

20.11.09: London Showcasing Youth Event Announced

Emerging UK Talents Capture The Spirit of Youths

On December 5th 2009 twenty young talents between the ages of 18-25 will be showcasing their talents at the ITV Centre in Central London as part of the Pan European Roots & Route's Academy initiative.

Talents were chosen through auditions held in London and Coventry and attended by over eighty young people. The selected musicians, dancers, media talents and young actors at the start of their creative journey will perform in front of an invited audience of 200 plus. This showcasing event is being sponsored by ABi Associates and its partners, Coventry based AV Frontline, MTV Award winner Tan Mathews, London based companies, Sai Photography and London Elite Events.
